

10 TIPS FOR Raising Global Children

1

Commit to helping children develop a global mindset

2

Encourage curiosity, open-mindedness, adaptability, empathy, resilience and self-reliance

3

Provide a solid grounding in our home culture

4

Make learning a second language a top priority as early as possible

5

Take advantage of the vast resources at libraries to bring the world into the classroom and home

6

Explore other cultures through food, music, movies, art, games, events and friends

7

Travel as a fun yet educational way to broaden children's minds

8

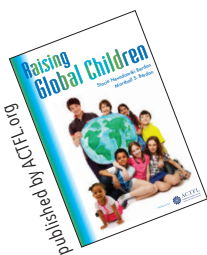

Encourage children to study, work and/or do an internship abroad at some point in their academic career

9

Host an exchange student or teacher

10

Advocate for increasing global awareness/education and foreign language learning in your school/district

Stacie Nevadomski Berdan is a seasoned global executive, an expert on international careers and an award-winning author of five books on the intersection of globalization and careers. Based on her work in more than 50 countries, Stacie counsels organizations on global issues and is a sought-after speaker for diverse organizations around the world.

